New York In celebration of World Trade Week NYC 2010 – 'Global Markets: Now More Than Ever', New York international trade organizations have planned a week of exciting activities that will highlight the world of international trade in the New York Metro area. The week will kick off with a gala reception at the International Trade Awards Breakfast on Monday, May 17, 2010, hosted by the New York District Export Council and the Weissman Center for International Business/Baruch College/CUNY and presented by JH Cohn, LLP. Awards will be presented to Astonfield Renewables, Inc.; ITAC; AIMEX, LLC; D.W. Haber & Son, Inc.; Gramercy Partners, LLC; Global Export Marketing Company; Dragados USA, Inc. and The Port Authority of New York and New Jersey.

Putting the Pieces Together – Finding the International Trade Resources You Need to Succeed, a free resource forum, will follow the Monday, May 17th festivities at Baruch College. The day continues with events focusing on compliance, export & import training, the NEI and 'green' & sustainable development.

Corporate Espionage & Global Security kicks off Tuesday, May 19 with a look at protecting your business interests. USCIB offers Managing your Trade Risks in Today's Economy, with Scams in International Trade, Importing & Exporting: Operating in the Global Market and Doing Business in the Czech Republic round out the day. OWIT-NY and the Manhattan Chamber of Commerce host a Global Networking Evening to close the day.

Wednesday's events include: Small, Smart & Connected: Get What you Need to Succeed in Global Trade and Doing Business in the U.S. for Foreign Owned Companies. Thursday sees Import/Export Compliance 101, the European Chamber's Spring Networking Event and an Introduction to GlobalTrade.net at the NYPL/SIBL.

Additional events taking place during this expanded World Trade Month include: NAFTA: the Next 15 Years, What's Hot in Israel and Why you need to be there, COFACE-Country Risk Forum, Haiti Reconstruction, BKLYN MADE, Textile & Trade Policy and a Tour of Maher Terminals and ExpressRail rounds out this exciting month of global trade events.
